September Dates

Sweet Alibi with guests The Middle Coast

Rose City Roots favorites Sweet Alibi are back and with a new recording – Walking in the Dark. Western Canadian Music Award Winners, Sweet Alibi, have been captivating audiences across Canada. The Winnipeg-based folk/pop band infuse their signature harmonies with influences of everything from folk to country to soul, without a hint of shame. Sweet Alibi's Jess Rae Ayre, Amber Quesnel, and Michelle Anderson share personal experiences that are genuinely felt in song. Audiences have been raving nationwide for their performances at Winnipeg folk fest, Juno Fest, Canada Day Ottawa, International jazz festivals, and many concert series.

Saturday, September 3 at 8 PM

Dustin Harder & Prairie Soul

Dustin Harder is a Metis singer/songwriter who performs and writes in multiple genres but it all stems from The BLUES he is a something for everyone style artists. "I wish to make your attendees feel comfy but also push the comfort zones with my professional contemporary blues sound."

The passion and intensity that Dustin Harder pulls through his guitar is immediately apparent, and backed by an unrelenting rhythm section They are the complete "something for everyone" Band.

Saturday, September 10 at 8 PM

Brittany Catherine

Brittany Catherine is a country-rock singer/songwriter from Alberta who just wants to share her music with the world!

Thursday, September 15 at 8 PM

Mel Parsons

Award-winning singer songwriter Mel Parsons is well recognized as one of New Zealand's established songwriting stars.

With a dynamite live show – solo, or with her dynamic band, Parsons is an engaging performer with a natural emotive voice that allows the listener to become part of the story. Her unique style simmers somewhere between indie/folk and alt/country, and her shows are as memorable for the spine tingling songs as for Parsons' dry banter delivery in between.

Friday, September 16 at 8 PM

Al Simmons

He's a musician! He's an inventor! He's a nut! He's been called the Thomas Edison of entertainers, a wizard of one-liners and a lightning bolt of lunacy. His astounding gadgets, preposterous songs, impeccable comic timing and kooky take on classic vaudeville have thrilled and entertained fans of all ages for 4½ decades. Juno Award winner Al Simmons is a creative genius whose highly original performances of profound wackiness and of off-the-wall inventions have taken the arts of Music and Comedy to unparalleled heights of hilarity. Young or old, you cannot fail to appreciate this man's frenetic stage antics and mind-boggling loveliness.

Sunday, September 18 at 2 PM

Kimberley MacGregor

Kimberley MacGregor is an Edmonton, Alberta-based singer-songwriter who believes that breakfast is the most important meal of the day and that whisky is a health tonic. She lovingly crafts and passionately performs songs that will move your heart, change your mind, and stomp your feet. With her band, she can rock a festival crowd at any time of day or night; solo, she can deliver an intimate acoustic performance that never fails to captivate an entire room. Reminiscent of Susan Tedeschi and meeting Etta James head-on, her voice and energy will change how you experience modern music.

Special Anniversary event!

Keep watching for information on a special event being planned in November to commemorate the 10th Anniversary of Rose City Roots Music and the 5th Anniversary of the Bailey Theatre!

Join The Calendar Club!

David Roth, Carman Mason and Dan Olafson are looking for people to join The Calendar Club. If you could commit to a regular yearly donation of $100 or more on the same set month each year, this would be used to offset operating costs at The Bailey. Donations are eligible for a tax deductible receipt. With a group of generous supporters like you, the total of these regular donations will equal a significant benefit to the not-for-profit Bailey. Contact one of these gentlemen to sign up today, or call the Bailey Box office and leave your contact information so they can call you!
